I believe because he's an idiot and don't care! I told him I ingested grass in both engine inlets AGAIN last night,. And informed him you noticed this during landing also. He would rather cover things up than address them.

I told him this is an unacceptable practice of cutting the grass before an arrival, and I should have purchased the vacuum. Personally I think he didn't want to lawn/leaf vacuum because it requires more work. He always waits till the last minute to do everything..
