1. Dear Jamie, I always find our brief time together both informative and intriguing, I think it could be mutually beneficial if we were able to set aside an hour or so when i am next in New York. If your assistant could contact my chief of staff at ----- i have instructed him to try to coordinate. Look forward to it. I remain, Ehud,

2. Dear Lloyd, I really look forward to having enough time when i am in new york , to sit with you and try to find some joint project on which we can work together. I have great respect for what you have accomplished , and believe it would be both fun and lucrative . Lets try to set aside an hour or so , either before or immediately after the event in April.
