Dear Jim,

Wishing you and family best wishes for the new year. I will be returning home this evening after spending a few days in Malaysia on a semi official visit.

We are currently identifying people who can effectively perform the functions you have outlined. In addition to Shafeeu, we now have others in the organizing committee who will be working together to develop the structures you have suggested. Next week we should be able to come back to you with further information.

We have a couple of key issues we need to resolve like possibilities for coalition before the elections, it's merits and risks. Similarly assess the challenges in forging ahead without the support of currently major political parties in my existing coalition. This discussion would be best held over a Skype session. We can schedule this when its convenient for you. I will ask Shafeeu to coordinate the time.

Other than that the information and questions you sent have initiated more excitement among the party colleagues.

Thanks and look forward to talk to have a more detailed discussion shortly.

Best regards,
Waheed

Hello President Waheed:

Now that the Holidays are wrapping up and the New Year is almost upon us, I thought I would drop you a quick follow up note to see how things were coming together with the campaign as well as the overall development of your campaign organization.

I am sure that you are very busy but when you have a moment please let us know how things are coming together and when you think would be a good time to discuss the next steps in the overall development process for your campaign.

Until then, I want to wish you a Happy and Prosperous New Year!
