Hi Jeffrey,

I just called my lawyer. I am so sorry about this notice. It is utterly unnecessary since my husband has all of my financials. They are looking to affirm my income to calculate child support.

My lawyer is collecting all necessary documents to satisfy the other side and avoid an unnecessary deposition. I asked Rich to send me an email affirming my salary thus far and my compensation moving forward, which can be on a month to month basis.

My sincere apologies. I will do every I can to submit the requested documents and avoid involving you further.
