Good to hear. [REDACTED]

I put together the following table. Here's what I think about his grieving.

Phase	Predicted Time	Actual Time	Comments
Shock & Denial	2 weeks	24 days	Trip in Africa – prolonged since media distance and time zone made him more communicative with work colleagues
Pain & Guilt	2 months	(ongoing) 26 days to date	Due to self-sacrificing nature, guilt for “desertion” of colleagues is likely to overlap for 2-3 additional months; evil media likely to still be at a peak
Anger & Bargaining	2 months		Legal battles likely to culminate here
Depression, Reflection, Loneliness	3 months		My new role likely to be in the early “honeymoon” stages, jealousy and comparison expected; will be finishing up term at Harvard
The Upward Turn	2 weeks		Summer optimism; likely to be near draft completion of a book
Reconstruction	2 months		Will have completed Harvard; Ballmer's implosion will likely be at fever pitch
Acceptance & Hope	2 months		If not fully entrenched into new role, will be near

Thanks for all of your help with him.

When you feel human again, let's talk. I come off service on Wednesday.
