Jeffrey,
Chris our Flight Engineer, is unable to fly the Moscow trip in Boeing. He is starting a 135 charter with his single engine plane and has checkrides and FAA meetings end of this month.,
I can try to use PanAm I instructor as Flight engineer possibly or find another pilot and use Dave as Flight engineer.
I will search for a solution and get back to you.
I need to find someone and obtain Visas for this person and add him to my Ops specs for our 125 manual.

Thx
Larry
