I think that most likely she is OK and I will do everything to help but between us (do not convey her that) we are still not there 100%

Subject: Dr. [REDACTED] secondment

Lina.... This note is in follow up to [redacted] telephone message I just left you in reference to the potential secondment of Dr. [redacted] [redacted] to the World Bank. We are enthusiastic about the chance to have [redacted] seconded to the Bank and are looking forward to the impact that her work can have on the issues that we care about the most.

Let me introduce you to Stephen Leanos. Stephen is our employment counsel and will be on point to coordinate this transition with you and your team. As well, Tiffany Sobers (copied on this note) will provide the necessary human resource support. Both Stephen and Tiffany are terrific colleagues and are ready and able to work through any issue that might come up along the way.

I am attaching what I understand to be the latest draft agreement so you can all work off the same document.

Once again, thanks so much for your support. I look forward to helping the team in any way I can to facilitate this process.

Regards,

Cheryl
