dear jeffrey, having a little breakfast and then heading to the airport in an hour, i wanted to thank you so much for my experience here, it hasn't been so much about what i've seen more the fact that I'm actually doing things i love; exploring the world and involved with big spirited, interesting projects. it felt like it re-instated a part of me that had fallen to sleep and longed to wake up! and it came at the most opportune moment when taking the trip has helped move me forward in my life in a really positive way. So, thank you so much, i feel very grateful and thanked everyday! V star is very inspiring, and a beautiful sight, you should have been here! There are other reflections but if I spend the time to write, i'll miss the plane! (which might not be a bad thing i suppose, since they have the best, most inexpensive massage and I am a junkie, funny no, no happy endings, before you ask your next question :)
much love,
