Dear Hungry Friends,

I am delighted to announce that as of this morning at 9 am, Babeth's Feast, New York City's only frozen food store, is open!

With over 360 products to choose from our "cool" staff will help you find inspiration for any type of meal you would like to put together in a minimal amount of time.

I'm sending you some photos but would be thrilled to welcome you in person to our phenomenally beautiful store. I am also sending some articles from The New York Times and The New York Post as well as some pictures to make you look forward to your next meal!

Elisabeth
