I saw this rug in a Miami showroom. 15'x17' would be $8,500. They can custom make it in 3 months, or look into binding smaller sizes together. The texture is soft, but not squishy like the wool one at The Rug Company. I can try and get a sample if you like it and want to see it

This rug is wool and viscose and can be custom made with a black border in 4-5 months for $10,875

Or this rug you like from The Rug Company that's really thick and squishy can be custom made in 18-24 weeks. The sales lady is finding out if it's possible to add a black border to it if you do custom size and what the price would be for 15'x17'. She says she'll have the price shortly and I will forward if you're interested in getting this one custom made
