Our curator David is mad for mid-century design. The clean lines, the elegant forms, the careful pop of color. He loves it all. That's why he's taking us through his favorite picks for a mid-century modern living room. With a classic mix of vintage teak wood furniture and retro accents like sunburst clocks, see how he fills out the space with easygoing style that's both original and timeless at the same time. Then recreate it yourself with a few of his selections. Just ask David - this is a look that keeps getting better.
