I think Rich and I have the Zorro questions taken care of. There were some purchase requests that required a bit more info from Brice and Karen.

I had a conference call with Brice and Karen Thursday to follow up on open items.

The other paperwork has worked itself out. One was Darren wanting me to ask you about severance for Randy, the other was new boat related. Rich wanted me to find out if you were going to test drive it up north.

An open item to discuss is a bonus for Danny Etienne. Ana thinks (and I agree) that his work on Little C was outstanding and it saved you a lot of money and time at the local repair shop. So, she would like to give him a $2000 bonus for that job. It would have cost $20K plus at the marina according to Carlos.
