Martin or Jim, I would like you to respond to Jeffrey Epstein, my good friend, who has been advising me on this matter for 3 years and is very familiar with all details. If you do not want to respond to him in an email...can you talk to him just prior to our conference call at 4:00pm on Monday or can he be on the call on Monday?

I understand Martin/Jim there is lawyer/client confidentiality....but I am asking that Jeffery's analysis be taken into consideration...as he tends to play hard ball and my brother is afraid of him. My brother knows Jeffrey would "go after him" to help me.

Please advise. Thank you. Peggy

I would tell Gary he pays you a total of 550, no deduction for half the jewelry, and you won't go to the judge and question him taking extra money and a loan, and settle it.

he stole 330k, just as you and I thought, he "borrowed" 80k "bullshit," and took and additional 250 without accounting for it, which now he is willing to pay back,
