Hi Lesley and Rich,

Just wanted to let you know I received the check for $2000 yesterday. This money will go directly to the sequencing costs of the 2 exomes. My work is pro bono.

The saliva sample will definitely get into this round. I need to find out if we can get the cell culture in this round or if it will need to wait until the next round. I should know this by Monday. If that's the case, I can keep the extra $1000 and apply it to the next round. Or send back and invoice again when the cells are ready. (Whatever Jeffrey prefers is fine.)

Thanks,
Joe
