Take your style to new heights this summer with a fresh twist on city living. Inspired by the electricity in the air on a warm, city night, you don't need a ton of space to give your home a jolt of urban chic style. Here's how to make it work: Choose a light color palette with pops of bright citrus tones. Add plenty of chic barware to help cool things down, and keep the look fresh with sunny patterns and bold accent chairs. Your space will be alive and buzzing in no time.
