

To: jeffrey E.[jeevacation@gmail.com]; lawrence delson[REDACTED]
From: Richard Joslin
Sent: Tue 5/27/2014 1:21:50 PM
Subject: Bloomberg News: Lund Painting Sold for 1,500% Gain as Art Flippers Return

LDB purchased a Grotjahn's in March as did the 1997 Trust – approx. $300K each

“The highest price for a flipped work last week belongs to a 2011 painting by Mark Grotjahn, “Untitled (In and Out of the Darkness Face 43.01),” which sold for $6 million. In October 2011, the work made news by fetching $1 million at a benefit gala for TWO x TWO for AIDS and Art, an annual auction in Dallas that raises money for the Dallas Museum of Art and for AIDS research.”

[REDACTED]