09 we were just starting – whole project got stalled on financing. Then the transistor issue stalled us another 7 months. Rrr...

Yes to a % - in terms of a % over what I am currently offered, that will be too small for you, no? In any event, I am open to something.

I would like to consider carefully the weight of complexity vs. the speed of simplicity. In other words... a purchase of a % of WorldVu + an investment or something along those lines is fairly simple. I am open to structuring as a partnership, but concerned that it will take a lot of paperwork/time/legal fees.

not sure why in 09 , after the crisis, numbers still were for 13. ? Im headed to seattle next monday, . If you want me to help you get a better deal, I suggest you make me a proposal. If not. ok also. ie some percentage above what you are currently offered , as you can't afford a fixed fee for my involvement. No matter what I will act as a sounding board , but this would require a swat team of litigation counsel tax. ip expert. etc. all would come out of my side.
