After school is over I plan to spend time with my mum - she is coming to visit me and will stay here until May 23rd. Will be nice to show her around and see the sights of NY that I haven't been able to see during my stay because of intense studies. I hope I will also have opportunity to introduce her to you! If you will be in the city sometime during her visit and will have some free time to meet her - she would be very excited to meet you!

It's so kind of you to offer help- you are always so generous! I have my ticket from New York for May 28th, but it would be wonderful to travel back home with my mum on May 23rd as you suggested me when we last met. If that was possible, my mum and I would be very happy and grateful!

Also, if there anything special, besides home-made bread, that my mum could bring to you from Lithuania - she would love to!

so what happens after may 17th ? master class.? do you need tickets to go home? [REDACTED]
