you can do both, offer her the girls deal and if she says no, politely suggest then that you will look into alternaiteves and wait wait wait I rather see the girls in effect buying both david and [REDACTED] . and get the past in the past, and move forward on great opportunities

I have asked them to work on the idea of the note. I have checked and had the confirmation her shares (C shares with no voting rights , only dividends) can only be sold to us or to other family members . If she wished to sell to anybody else it has to be accepted by the board and B . The other ppsibility : the cousins - they don t have the money and i doubt they would want to buy a minority share with no voting rights and no right to have a representative at the board . One possible solution : telling her we re looking into it,ake her wait as long ad needed ...

understood, i am going to fly to ny on monday to see henri, , the girls could buy [REDACTED] interest with a note. that pays current interest. tax wise it would have to be structured properly. . [REDACTED] would in essence receive an income for the rest of her life. . the issues would be , a trustee for the girls holdings. it requires finesse.

Dear Tom,

Yes,Jeff thinks that we should meet, and he feels that we have many subjects to share. I agree, and " big family management" is often a lonely and bumpy road.

I am therefore impatient to meet you and will come to Amsterdam .

Please let me know what would suit you best.

Thank you for your invitation .

Best regards

Jeff says we should meet so that means we gotta meet.

One thought. On June 13 we are hosting the Pritzker Architecture Prize ceremony in Amsterdam. We are doing it at the Rijksmuseum and it should be quite nice. If you are available please consider yourself invited and we could get together for lunch on June 13th or 14th.

If that doesn't work, I am in and out of Europe and we could find another time. Certainly if your travels bring you to the US, please let me know.

Best,

Tom
