Jeffrey,

Thank you so much for what you are doing for Rachel, Adrienne and myself.

I am hopeful that you can figure a way to convince them to accept her.

Let me know if there is anything else that you need for me to supply you with.

I appreciate what you are doing for Rachel more than my words can appreciably express.

I don't know exactly why, but I can't help feeling like somehow we are related....I just do.

Eric

What is the next step? Do you want me to come into the city tomorrow to meet? Does Rachel still have a chance?

I really need and appreciate your help and guidance.

Good morning Jeffrey,

I am not sure when you get back to New York, but we have only a few weeks before Rachel has to make a decision and commit to a college.

You said that there are always a couple of spots that colleges keep open and I am wondering if there remains an opportunity at University of Michigan for her through you and your relationships?

At this point I am not sure what to do?

Your reply or phone call would very much be appreciated.

Thank you.

Good morning Jeffrey,

Rachel just received notice that she has been rejected from Michigan (see attached).

Is there anything that you can do to influence / appeal,... something?

Devastated.
