You remember Gene, the black guy that's worked for me for decades.

On Monday I hosted a reception here for about 40 people. 15 were members of the Black Congressional Caucus. (They came to NY to attend a Humpty Dumpty program at the UN). Yesterday I told Gene who was over the house the night before. He said to me "you should have invited me. I would have put on a suit and tie. I know how to handle them. I would have come in and said "hey there, Niggers!"
