Good Morning Mr. Epstein,

My name is Haley Collins and I am the Director of Seaside Adventures Camp in St. Thomas. We provide the children of St. Thomas with a positive environment away from daily distractions and pressures to empower them, create opportunities, and aid in character development. Our focus is to provide the youth of St. Thomas with educational as well as team building activities such as public speaking, sign language, art, music, photography, as well as health and anti-bullying workshops. We work along side businesses such as VICA, the Community Foundation, Ninki Water, Senor Frogs, as well as with noted people in the community such as Julius Jackson. We would love the opportunity to meet with you and tell you more about what we do and what our goals are for the youth of St. Thomas. We will be available June 14 and 15, but please let us know what works best for you. We look forward to hearing from you.

Haley Collins
