Hi Richard,

I hope all is well with you.

We would like to invite Mr Epstein to a private dinner we are having in New York on Thursday, April 3rd. This would be an opportunity for Mr Epstein to meet Peter Knights and hear some exciting updates on our campaigns to end the illegal trade in shark fin, ivory and rhino horn.

Please let me know if you think Mr Epstein might be able to attend.

Thanks.

-- John

Dinner with WildAid

with Peter Knights, WildAid Executive Director and special guest Ms. Bo Derek

Thursday, April 3rd

8:00PM
Bar Boulud
1900 Broadway (at 64th Street)
New York, NY 10023

Prince William, Yao Ming, and David Beckham appear in a recent WildAid television message.

"WHEN THE BUYING STOPS, THE KILLING CAN TOO."

WildAid is the only organization to focus on reducing the demand for wildlife products. Working with hundreds of Asian and Western political figures, celebrities, and business leaders, including Prince William, Yao Ming, Jackie Chan, Edward Norton, and Sir Richard Branson, their public service messages and educational initiatives reach hundreds of millions of people a week in China alone. In the last two years the campaign is attributed with reducing demand for shark fin by 50-70% in China. WildAid's elephant and rhino campaigns are using similar tactics to reduce demand for ivory and rhino horn in China and Vietnam.
