Jeffrey,
I spoke to GV sellers Broker, her name is Zepporah this morning, She advised the GV will only stay in St Martaan 27th and 28th, and informed me they received another LOI on the GV, she voiced they would rather complete the deal with you, gutt tells me its a lower offer than ours. She started her conversation firm with me, and I layed into her stating our concern of concealing the damage history/lightning strike until after they accepted our $13.1M offer, she immediately changed her tone and apologized, I voiced my personal opinion, we would have not offered $13.1M if we had known of lightning strike especially after asking if there is damage history. I also told Zepporah the window to view the GV in St Martaan is only 12 hours, and does not meet with your schedule, She indicated the GV could possibly stay until the March 1st,. should I ask if seller is willing to bring the GV to St Thomas on 28th for your viewing? or try to schedule a later date in NY? I feel they are pushing us to have only a short window to view the aircraft, especially after learning the GV will only be in St Martaan one day.
