Upon reflection of objective -subjective, one might think of it more like the filing of a bottle. the bottom of the bottle (the stomach), and the very top the head . imagine lines on the side of the bottle. the first line . marked aversive, ugly, the very top of the bottle beautiful ,sublime . with the smallest amount of input , everyone can recongize ugly, smell dead meat etc. both with the various shapes of bottles and how high the neck, combined with the volume of liquid , few experience sublime.
