Dear Jeffrey,

Thank you for your email and, of course, for your interest to continue discussions with me. It would be very good for me (and you) if I could come down to the Caribbean to actually understand what the job entails.

I have two big deadlines the 10th of March, and it would thus be somewhat easier for me to fly down after the 10th. However, I understand that this might be too late. If this is the case, I will of course do what I can to be able change my schedule so that I would be able to fly down around the 6th or 7th, or maybe, maybe already on the 28th of February. Please let me know if you find the 10th to be too late.

Warm regards,
[REDACTED]
