Dear Andrea,

It would be great to touch base about the retreat, as it's fast approaching, so if we could find 15- 30 mins this week that would be great. I will also join the roundtable on the 18th with Jenn for the wider polio update.

Best,

Max

Dear Andrea,

Great to meet you over email. Could we set up a time to talk about the upcoming security and access retreat and the broader Gates/IPI work on polio? Would 30 mins during any of these times work for you: 113-12pm or 1.30-2pm work on the 12th, 8-9am on the 13th (all PST)?

It doesn't need to involve many people on your end. On my end it will be just me and possibly Jenn Alcorn, Stephanie Lazar or Sara Rogge if they are available.

Best wishes,

Max

Andrea,

That's great – thanks so much!

I'd like to also introduce you to Max Gasteen, who is joining the foundation as our lead on Geopolitical Security. I will transition from this role as he gets immersed. He will also work with Amy Carter on the grant focused specifically on polio.

We will be in touch shortly with additional details about the 24th.

With thanks,

Jenn

IPI Team,

The foundation will be bringing together its current set of partners focused on security and access in polio affected countries on February 24 from 11am – 5pm. I am reaching out with the hope that you will be able to send delegates that can provide an overview of the work IPI is doing in these countries (primarily Pakistan and Afghanistan but Somalia as well if possible) and to engage in an in-depth discussion about how to be most effective in this work moving forward.

A full agenda is forthcoming in the next week or so. Please let Stephanie Lazar and me know if you might be able to attend during that time.

We'll look forward to hosting you again at the foundation!
