Hi jeffrey,

Your subscription has been successfully cancelled

We are sorry to hear that you will no longer be using our subscription service. We hope you enjoyed using it.

Your subscription will terminate at the end of the current billing period, which is on Feb 6, 2015.

Possible reasons why your subscription will be cancelled are:

1. You cancelled the subscription yourself.
2. You are using PayPal for your subscription payments, and either the credit card linked with your PayPal account is no longer valid (for example, it has expired), or you have cancelled your billing agreement with Skype on the PayPal website.

No further payments for the service will be charged until you pay for a new order.

Getting help for Skype

While you cannot reply to this email, you can contact us through our help section for assistance.

You can also visit our forums.

Protect Your Password

Skype staff will NEVER ask you for your password via email. The only places you are asked for your password are when you sign in to Skype or on our website if you want to buy something or check your account. You will always sign in via a secure connection, and we ask you to ensure that the address in your browser begins exactly like this <https://secure.skype.com> It should also show a little padlock symbol to indicate the secure connection.

Be alert to emails that request account information or urgent action. Be cautious of websites with irregular addresses or those that offer unofficial Skype downloads. Security updates and product upgrades are made available at www.skype.com or using the client's upgrade function.
