Playful pieces to spark some creativity.

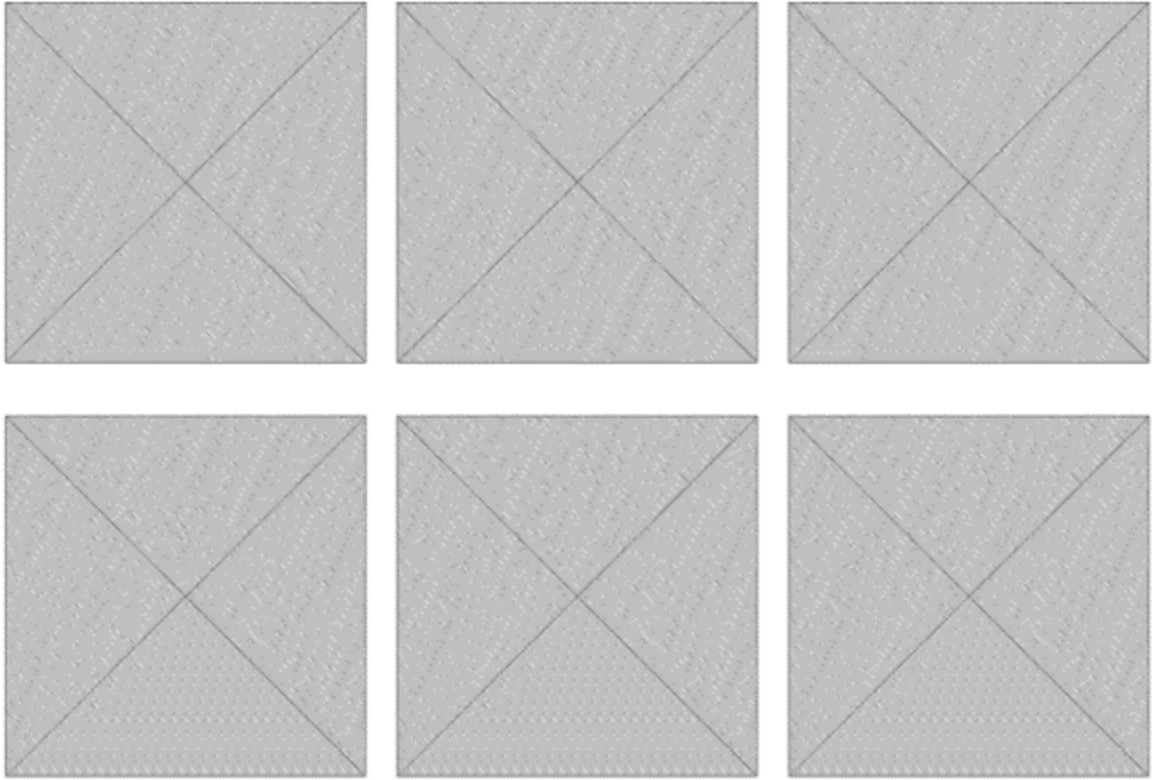

Inspiration may strike in the most unlikely of places . . . and when you least expect it. But we like to get a head start by surrounding ourselves with things that spark our creativity. Like bright metal filing cabinets, modular furniture pieces, and shiny metallic clocks we can't keep our eyes off of. Some retro elements and cool typographic prints round out our creative digs. What will inspire you?

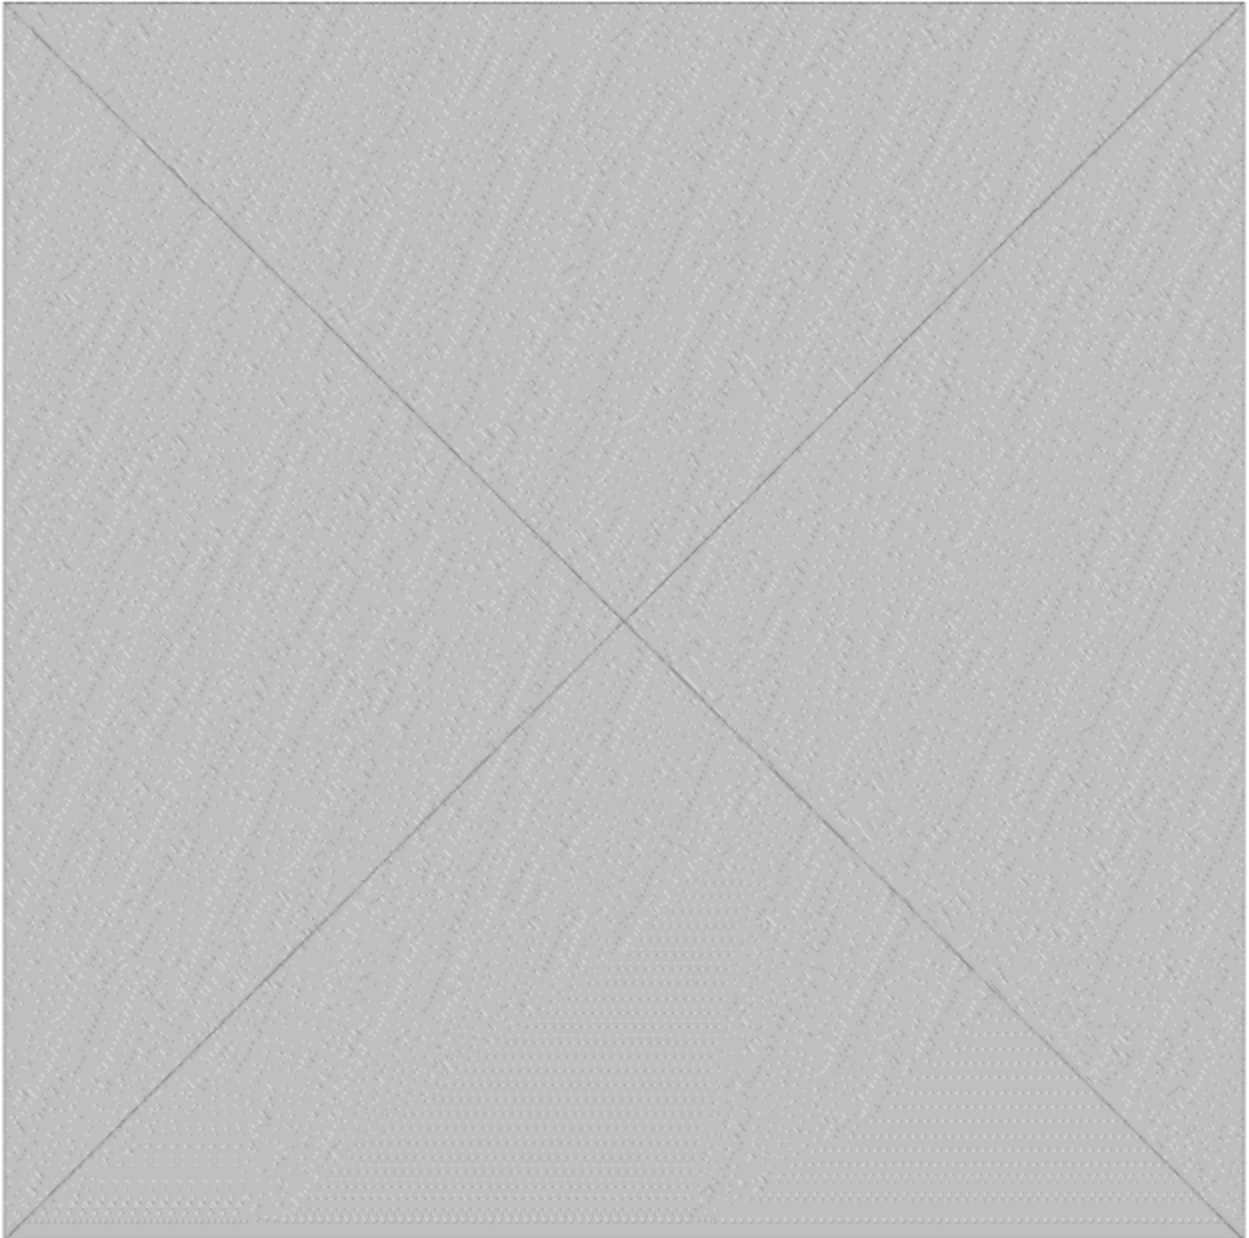

Because you can never have enough seating, or tables for displaying your favorite objects—we love this bright orange metal duo. Keep the nesting tables together as a bold accent, or place them separately for a smaller dose of orangey goodness in any room.

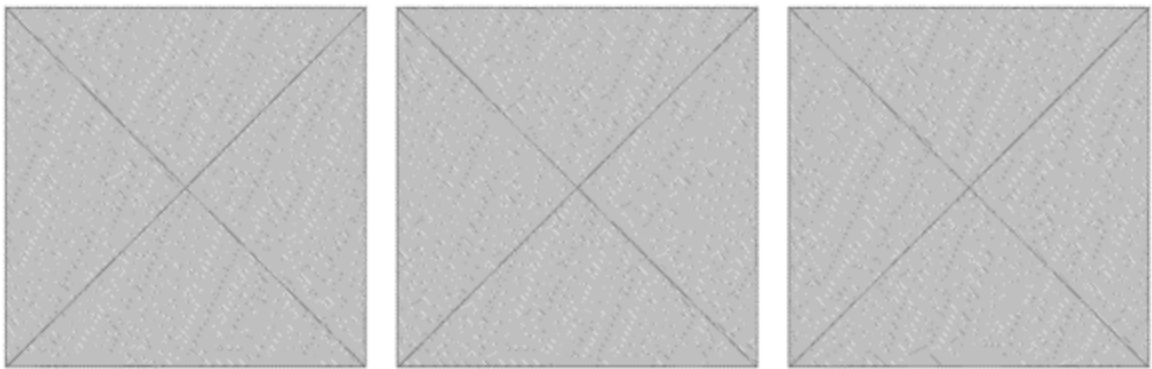

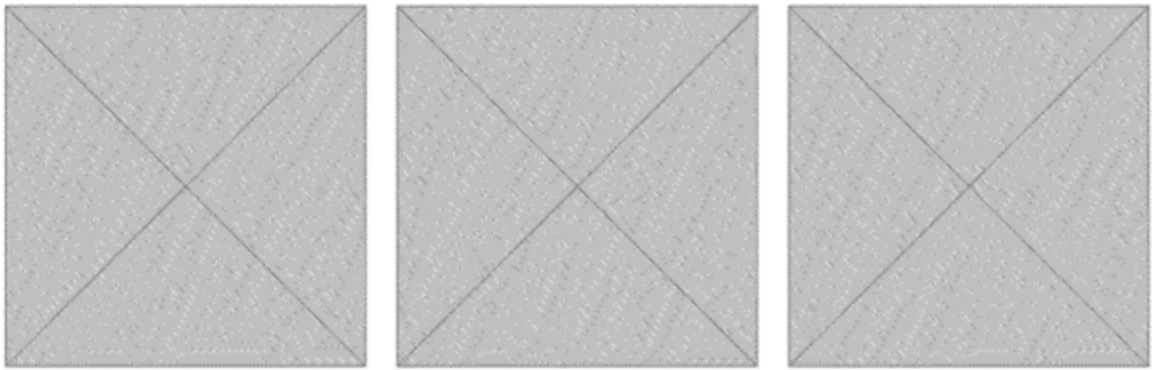

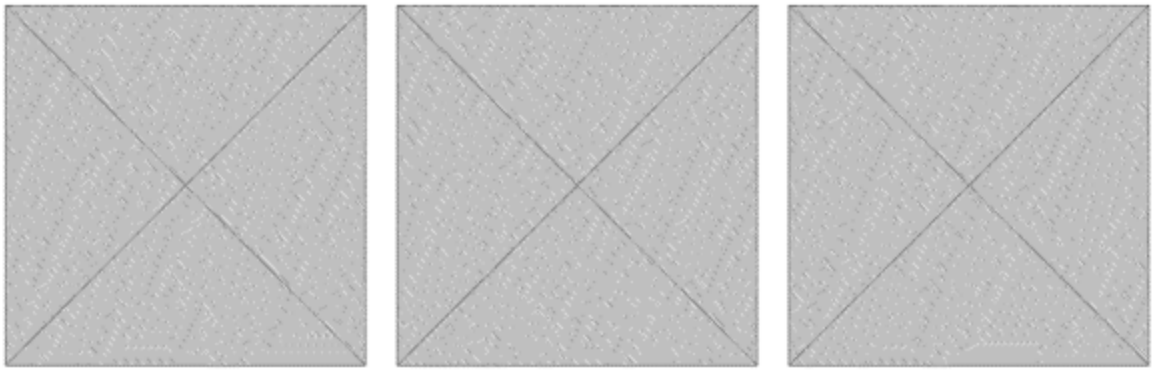

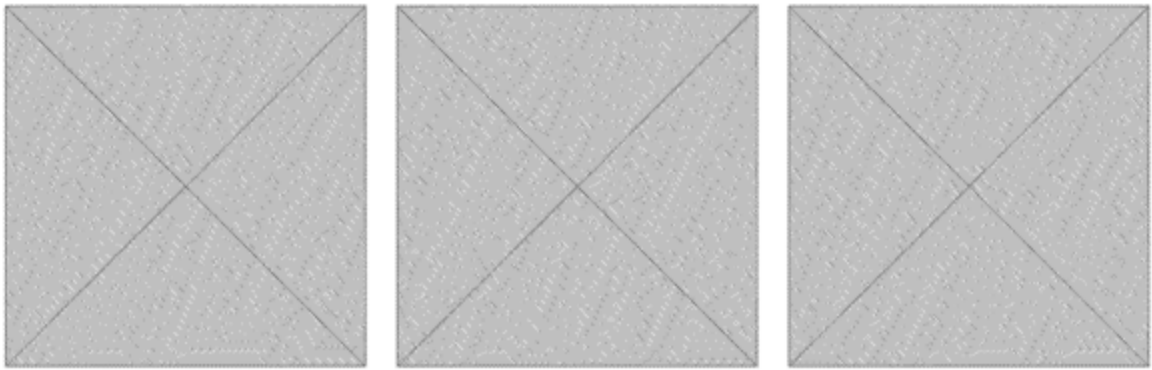

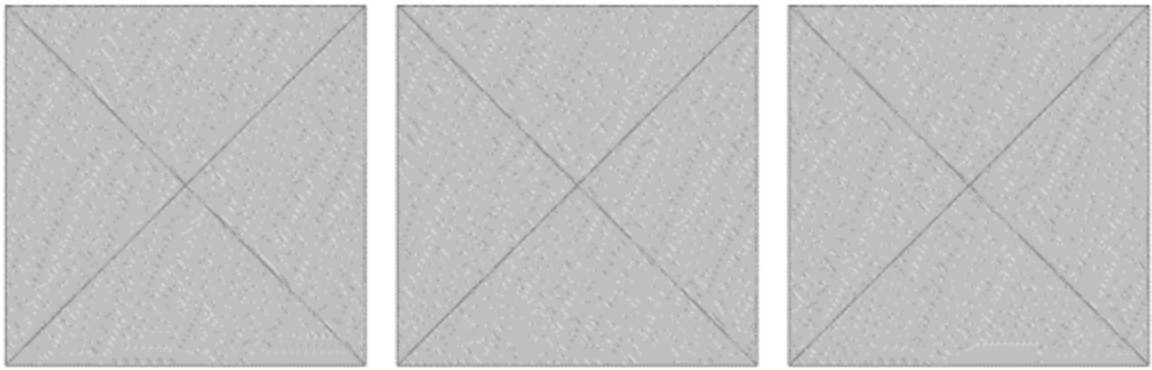

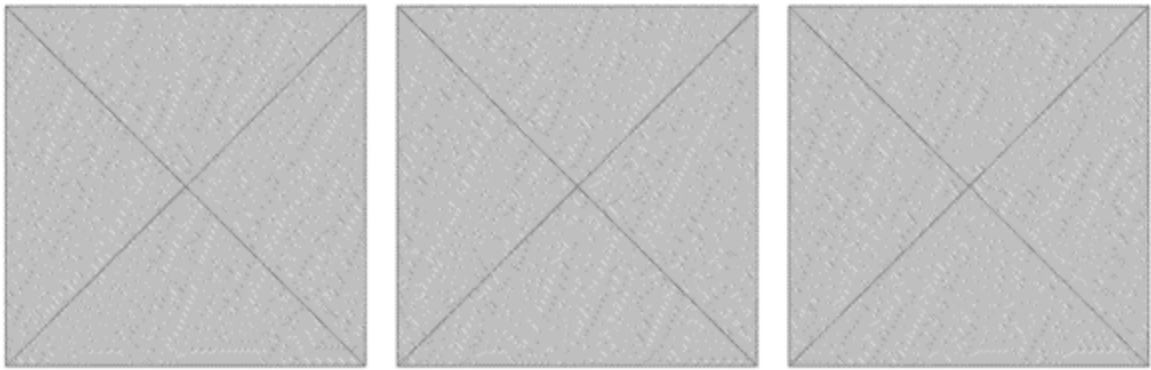

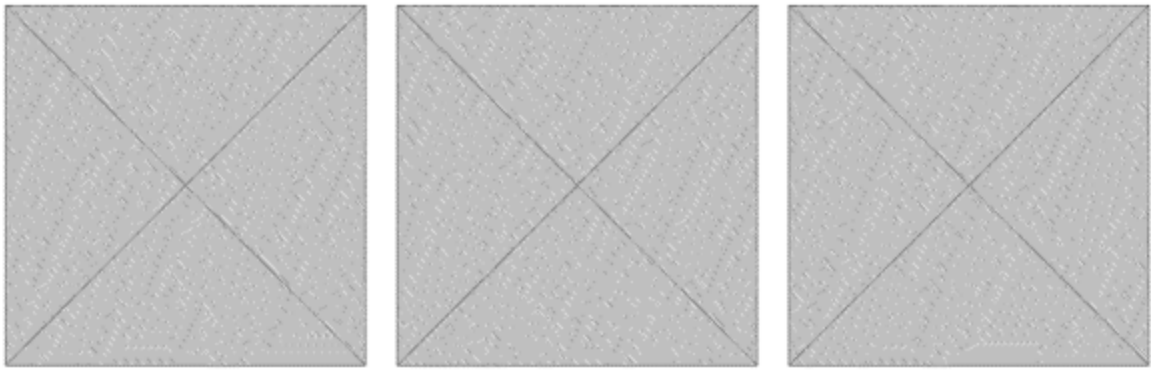

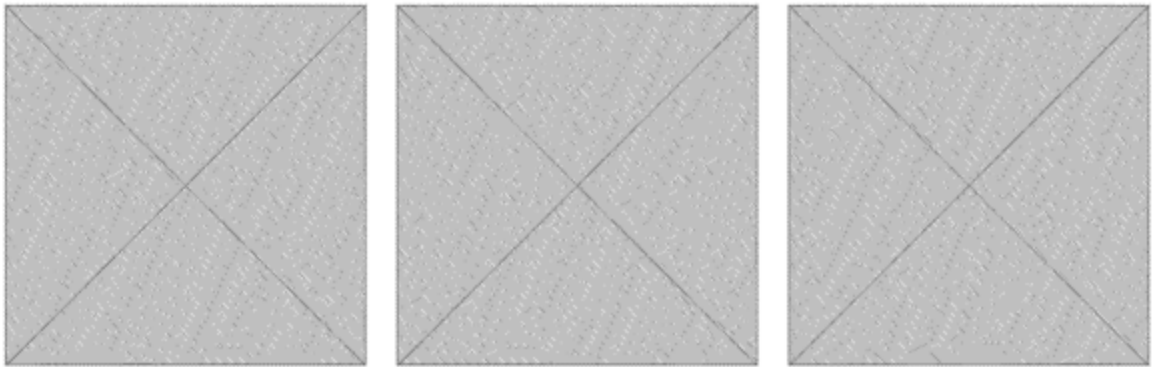

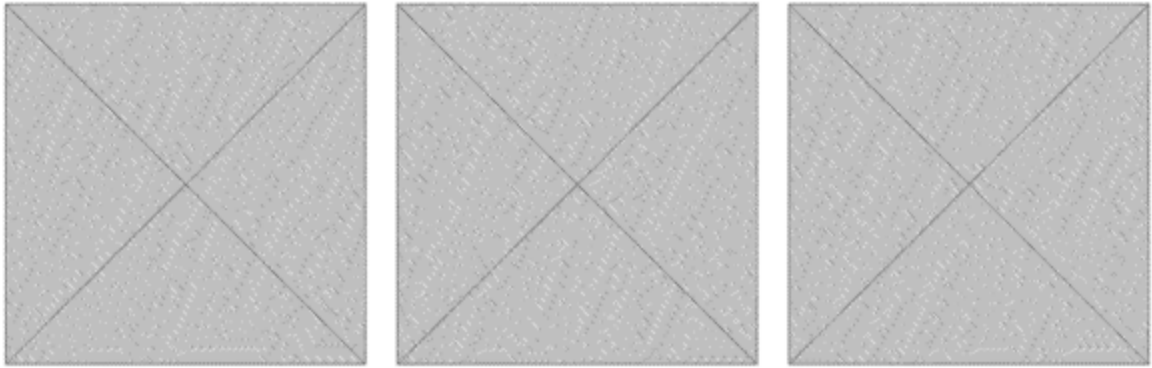

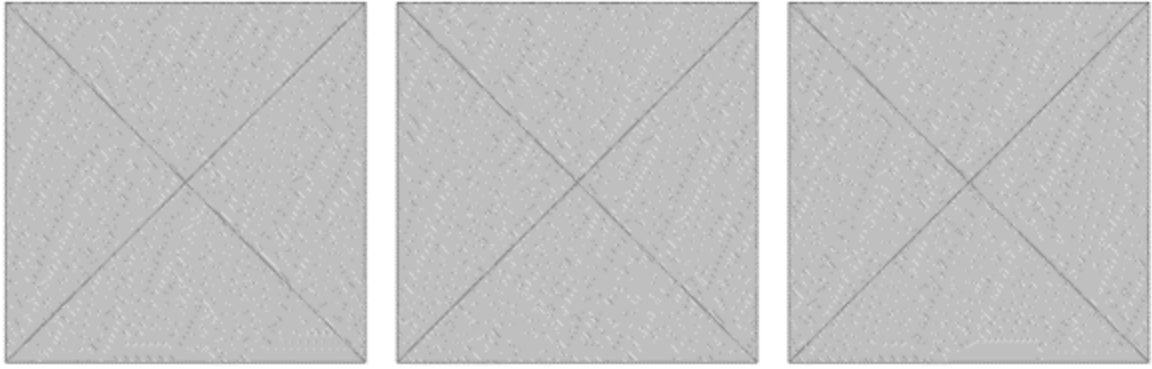

The perfect office needs a perfect couch, and we're especially into this bold teal one. A tufted back, large comfy cushions, and gracious curves give this beauty a mid-century appeal. And its cherry stained solid wood legs and frame give it some heft.
