Hi.

I am waiting on the year end reporting which I should have any day and will happily share all with you and get the balance on the LC. We have been struggling lately with payments to CPA, fixed payment plan that you know about, and we are fighting to keep current with 2013 (actually close out that 1042 debt) and keep current with this years 1042. There has been little activity on the LC but I will send you all info.

Best,

Jeff
