Subject: Meeting this week

Dear all,

I am indeed tomorrow (tuesday) on my way to London and will be back on Wednesday. After that (weekend included) we can meet whenever works best for you and am looking forward to meeting you in person.

On a separate note I wanted to inform you of a very interesting event taking place this Wednesday here in paris.

The RMauction is one of the best auctions for vintage cars including rare Ferraris and others. If you share the same passion please let me know and we can meet there and have a private viewing of the cars.

Regards
Gianni Serazzi
