As you recall, I had intentionally and fully absented myself from the process due to the vast and un-navigable (if there is such a word) conflicts. I don't know exactly where it left off and both Garrison and Mukamal are out of town today. But I will email them now, ask them to dust off whatever the most recent proposal was and have them re-send it to Cecile who is, I believe, the person you last had handling the matter. I hope that is an acceptable choreography.
