Super hard on [REDACTED]. She's there daily with him. Gotta love him. He's feisty, spirited, and working to get strong enough to climb stairs so he can go home. He had some bleeding internally & they never figured out what was happening. It weakened him.

Neither of them are picking up email yet. [REDACTED] answers her cell.

Did you know [REDACTED] had music compositions and papers on music?!

We talked a little bit about projective geometry - I saw the paragraph you'd sent to [REDACTED] on that (and loved it). [REDACTED] eyes lit up. Also about music, his kids, his health, ideas... He is very ready to go home, just not strong enough.

The projective geometry paragraph - I keep thinking about it...

[REDACTED] wanted to give you a call. Should I encourage that?

Psyched to work on power symposium. Anyone you want me to sync with on that? I have notes from when we started down this road last time. How has your thinking evolved? Who is interesting to you for this? Any interesting books, articles I might read?

Apparently, Howard Gardner is about to head into the hospital for a surgery...

I'm thinking of of a part-time (or more) move to Boston by fall. I may need to think about work... Or better investing... Expensive place to live! I love it there (except weather!).

Miss you! Almost your birthday! Still want cookies? Should I bring them?!

Saw them at rehab today. Update:
[REDACTED] seems good but very weak.
[REDACTED] hanging in there.
He may be there another 5-9 days - he has to build strength.

[REDACTED] is putting together [REDACTED]'s papers on music & his compositions. I suggested they might package up some of this and send it to you.

More later. At airport.
