Well, that was one of my strategies. The second one, which I also started to progress before Jean-Luc, was to make my Visa through showroom agency I worked with during the summer. I would have no commitment (because there is no contract with them) and I would pay the Visa right away. It is same way, I spoke to lawyer on the same day I left NYC. I still can do this, but I need to know if Jean-Luc is still willing to help me those recommendation letters.

I believe they would let me go. However, ONE is quite good. Wouldn't it be shame to leave them?
