Very well put. I don't know why other people can't see it clearly. It's because everyone has their own agenda. They r not interested in the truth. They all have their own baggage that they bring to the table. Is the fantasy and reality from the report or are you saying this?

"never charged "is not good enough .
'The allegations made by Mia, twenty years ago . were serious and hence investigated thoroughly, at the time, and for months by the court appointed independent experts and they concluded that there was no credible evidence and that dylan had an inability to "distinguish fantasy from reality." . anything else said i think leads to more issues.
