Dear Jeffrey,

Please, don't say that you failed with your help.. You really didn't fail- not at all! You helped me so much with so many things and with all your acknowledgement I know that you are the person I can really trust. Again, I strongly apologize for everything I told you that irritated you and for the behavior that could annoy you.. I really regret for everything and hope you can forgive me.. Once again, I feel very upset and bad about what happened tonight..

If this were not the third time we hve had the exact same issue I would be less annoyed. I am very sorry, since you seem to have the answers to all questions im not sure i can add anything. When i told you last time that i would greatly appreciate you just listening , and i will get it done. I was quite clear that you did not need a degree to have an internship, again, over and over you told me why you knew better and that was impossible . why why why would . etc. I had you meet with my friend and hear for yourself. again even after that. you decide to tell me story about what your parents said , your friends know etc. maybe they can tell you what to do and help you move forward. I have tried , and it seems I have failed im sorry,

I am very sorry that our meeting went to such an unpleasant ending.. I was greatly surprised that for internship I wouldn't need special form of visa that's why I couldn't believe it-I'm very sorry if my questions regarding it irritated you... I just wanted to share with you some things that I heard regarding visa issues and didn't mean to argue or disagree with you. Of course you have way more experience and know how things work in America, all the laws. I was very surprised that I don't need visa for internship, cause as I've already experienced it, things are very strict and complicated for foreign people in America... I am very sorry that my questions irritated you and I really apologize and regret for it...

I feel really very bad about it and I hope you can still forgive me for this unpleasant misunderstanding tonight as well as disturbing you at such a busy day..

so we are very clear, i made time again for you in a very busy day. i told you that a visa was not necessary, , again you start to tell me, but my parents said, . i said no they are wrong, you don't need. again you start to argue how is it possible, for the third time I tell you , it is possible , again you start to argue that your friends in lithuania cannot simply come and work, instead of saying . great. lets move forward again you spend you time telling me what you believe to be the facts about a subject you know very little. I am sorry, I wanted to help , and instead of moving forward , you want to tell me why things cannot be the way they are. because you know better -- I wish you luck.
