again you made decisions without knowing anything about real life. . this is really silly, you make statements about what you need before you really know. , you sit at home, look in the mirror and decide things. you should call david mitcehl today, go see some firms. I may be able to get you a job NOW. on the other hand if you prefer to continue to behave like a child.that refuses to take advice and try new things, I think it best that you go home or to barcelona , or somewhere not trying will be fine,

I made a decision to start studying from September - that's the earliest possible. I've started exploring - now I am researching information about different Universities and preparing for applications. i am also considering universities in US... Bu in order to apply to a school or a job first I need to prepare my architectural portfolio-which I started working on now and it takes time to complete it. Then I will apply to different schools to have more possibilities.
