Subject: some good news re polio Pakistan

This is not in the press yet..

A religious institution accepted by the Taliban as Islamic authority, is about to release a fatwa supporting vaccinations for polio & other diseases. This outreach to clerics acceptable to the Taliban was a primary reason for latest visit. This fatwa will soon be released in the media, I have received an advance copy (though it is pre-dated). Small steps in the right direction, although other problems remain.
