██████ just spoke with Janet from JPM with me on the line as Janet would not speak with ██████ without me on the phone.

I specifically told Janet not to tell ██████ why she can no longer be with the private bank however Janet when questioned by ██████ said that JEE relationship has changed and JEE switched banking institutions

██████ then asked Janet if she could change the name on her account before it transfers it to retail branch and Janet said no

When the call ended ██████ asked to speak with me and again asked by she had to originally leave JPM and now is being pushed to a local retail branch

I told her i did not know the details and she should speak with you directly.
