Subject: Fwd: Quote for Mr Epstein

Jared from [REDACTED] emailed me below.

(It seems a strange way of giving a quote and I don't want them to take advantage of you after seeing the house)

Anyway, according to my calculations of the numbers he gave below.

3 large walls of entrance hall:

$ 106,000 (200 yards at $530 per yard)

Massage room:

$ 8580 ($260 at &33 per yard)

He said this about the entrance hall:

But an on-site detailed measurement is necessary. Such quantity as determined by the final on-site measurement will differ from this preliminary estimate.

Can I get him to do an on site measurement. Also the quote is for the 3 walls, should we include the fireplace wall.

Hi [REDACTED],

Based on your measurements we are able to give you a very preliminary total of 200 yards for the entrance hall, which is assuming that you are using the red silk velvet with the same gaufrage pattern shown on the curtain display. Said gaufraged silk velvet is approximately 49 inches wide, the plain silk velvet with no pattern being 51 inches wide. But an on-site detailed measurement is necessary. Such quantity as determined by the final on-site measurement will differ from this preliminary estimate. The price for the gaufraged velvet is $530 per yard.

If you so wish, we can recommend installers to you who you may be in touch with to ascertain from them the final yardages required.

The same situation is true with the massage room. Our preliminary estimate is 33 yards, however this will have to be confirmed with your installers. Assuming the faux fur, item IC5069.1, is in stock, the price is $260 per yard. If there is not enough stock at the time of purchase and the fabric has to be produced, the price will be subject to an increase. I will follow up with stock information as soon as possible.

Thank you!
All the best,
Jared
