r i know we had this at one time, it had red leather drawers. with pull outs. ? do either of you know where it is if we still have it

Now, this is where it gets interesting. Sotheby's catalogue illustrates a cartonier (illustrated below) which they described as "later" that came with the desk.

Does Mr. Epstein have the cartonier? It's obviously hard to say from this black and white photo, but stylistically, the cartonier could be from the 1760's. If so, it was likely made at the same time the lion's masks were put on the sides and would make the desk significantly more valuable.
