jeffrey thought you were more than merely a silly model. so far to be honest , your responses seem to prove him wrong. no one is busier than he and he found time to organize things for you . so that your answer about not having time enough to write a note or send an email is hard for any one to understand, he has instructed me that you can stay at least until he returns. If i were you I would stop making excuses. - like- i didn't know the apt still smelled.. anyone who walks past the door can smell it. you made no effort to make it better. . you could have asked one of ten people how to deal with it. but did nothing. sorry to be so harsh, but so far you have been a disappointment to people who only tried to help

I didnt say thank you??? Yes I didnt write every day thank you, but was saying thank you to him for all and he said dont worry.. I know he is always busy, don't want to disturb him with messages!

glad to hear you are busy, however the fact that you have not even found 5 minutes to say thank you, either in a note, an email or a call to jeffrey, after receiving only kindness . is a totally unacceptable behavior for a guest . The apt still smells of smoke, badly, . . I suggest you ask your agency if they might find you a new place to stay.
