Jeff -

Sounds like you and Frank had the start of a good conversation and will be talking further. He sent the emails below and said I could go ahead and forward them to you.

I'll be tapping Lesley about slightly longer time for an apartment in January. I'd like to try to come January 13-19 or 20. Still working that out. Would love to see you if you're in town then.

And -- I'd love to get your thoughts on the market/investments (even though I'm not a prison guard!). My folks have me 1/3 in bonds and 1/3 in equities. I have a sense that the market is likely to take a big hit in the first part of 2014.... They said they invest in companies that are fundamentally sound, so not to be so concerned.

I'll be meeting with Kevin Slavin next week, in Boston, and we'll generate a list of attendees and start working on the agenda for the self-deception symposium (on the island?). Had you and I talked about setting up something else also, either in NY or on the island?

Trust you had a nice Thanksgiving!

XOXOX

BTW the intersection of clients between [REDACTED] and Michael Reiter are likely the people who wanted to fuck him over. (that is largely a guess, but a good one)

May I forward this to Jeff? Any further thoughts on this?

Absolutely fascinating: Michael Reiter is the retired Palm Beach County Chief of Police that had it in for Jeffery Epstein.

It seems he is in an interesting line of work for someone with his background in making sure a "High Net Worth" individual was brought low. Fascinating.
