Trust me on the food in Paris. It is one the few good thing left wbd not easy to find
I have been shocked by the change of Paris . How dirty it became. Dog's sheet have resurfaced everywhere .

City hostile and more and more unsafe.

It reminds me the white wigs of 18th century with stains and animals (roaches)

A city where the fake took over.

Paris has lost a lot of its flavor but Parisians haven't lost there arrogance

Your beautiful gift gave me time to look around thank you

One word ??????????

JIRO

One word. to remember JIRO..!!!!.....
