I had a dream, while was asleep, hence now I haVE a dream. I really need to talk to you, I want something great to happen and there is only you who can help it and who can taste it. It is very important. How can I tell you ? I could write, that would be really easier for me, but you should feel that letter. Or I can tell you by skype briefly, to save your time and then write you all in details. But firstly I need to know are you interested. Maybe it sounds crazy what Im saying, but I can and I want to change your spirit in a good, kind way. Give me 10 minutes tomorrow. And tell me american time so I can contact you.

Love,
G.
