Dear Jeffrey

I trust this email finds you well?

I must apologise for the weird correspondence of a few months ago.

I ended up having a melt down and have been in hospital for about 2 months. I'm doing better. And was discharged about 2 weeks ago.

I'm now at a health centre trying to shed some of the unwanted pounds gained as a result of the medication and not being that in control of what I eat at the hospital.

It was a horrible time, I'm just thankful I have my freedom again even though having been held in a psychiatric hospital hangs over me on some level.

Would love to know how you are and what's happening in your life...even though I know that's not really your style.

Take care,

Love,

Francis. X
