I was in meetings most of Friday.
During my last call with Gary's atty, I made 2 points:

1. We would settle but we needed Gary to come up considerably from his offer of $10,000.
2. If we didn't settle, then we would force a judicial accounting of the trust to be filed in NJ. If this happens, the trust will pay a very large fee to the NJ Court. She was not aware of this and was going to check it out.

I am waiting to hear from her. I have a tax deadline of Oct 15 but I will try to call her this week.

Thanks

Phil

Phil...I have not heard from you. Jeffrey told me he called you on Friday. Have you returned that call?

What is going on. Is there any connection with Gary's lawyers?

How long do I expect to wait for the 1.3 million I am waiting for.

Please advise. Once again, always know I am appreciative of all your efforts as impatient as I am.

Thank. Peggy Siegal
