

To: [REDACTED]
From: Jeffrey Epstein
Sent: Sat 10/12/2013 8:20:12 AM

gabi

When I'm on the ice, I feel invincible and free, yet more alert and ready for anything, whether it's the puck or an opponent advancing. Once I jump the boards, the ice is mine at all times since I'm center and am as much a defensive as an offensive player. This dual role in hockey has helped me focus better in school and in life because I'm responsible for more than myself.

-- As soon as I feel the ice crunch beneath my skates, a feeling of invincibility and freedom comes over me. Playing center, requires both offensive and defensive skills. Playing at all, requires acute awareness that I am a member of a larger team. Sounds like life to me.

The information contained in this communication is confidential, may be attorney-client privileged, may constitute inside information, and is intended only for the use of the addressee. It is the property of Jeffrey Epstein

Unauthorized use, disclosure or copying of this communication or any part thereof is strictly prohibited and may be unlawful. If you have received this communication in error, please notify us immediately by return e-mail or by e-mail to jeevacation@gmail.com, and destroy this communication and all copies thereof, including all attachments. copyright -all rights reserved