Hi Jeff! :)

I try to keep myself busy. I enrolled for Russian lessons, starting with yoga tomorrow, getting healthy eating manners and I temporarily support myself as manager of one kid center- it is small coffee house connected with playfield for kids. And of course, sending emails to ppl i work with in modeling to get as much letters as possible for my visa.

How r u? Whats new?

Thanks for VISA tip, I'll make sure to apply for it as the first thing when I get back home from school. ( impossible to do it through iPad) :)

Xxx
