Jeff,

All three are interested, but to do it this Fall easiest will be in Cambridge. Want to come back for a lunch or dinner? I could host at my house, or arrange a great restaurant.

Sounds cool! The rest of this term is pretty booked as far as travel goes, alas, but happy to chat if we can make it happen somewhere nearby (Boston, NYC); Spring is more open for long-distance travel.

Dear Neil,

That sounds great. Due to fatherhood, I'm traveling very little these days, so I'm generally available, except for Nov. 3-6. I may take my family for a long international trip over the winter break...not sure yet.

Sounds intriguing... thanks and yes, I'm interested. The destinations are all attractive, though Cambridge is certainly the most tractable.
